ABEL ASSEFA

GRAPHICS DESIGNER AND FRONTEND DEVELOPER

A versatile and driven professional, Deeply passionate about merging creativity with technology. With 4 years of experience in graphics design and 6 months in frontend engineering, I possess a unique blend of artistic flair and technical expertise.

ABOUT ME

Hello, I'm Abel Assefa, and I bring a wealth of experience and enthusiasm to the fields of graphics design and frontend engineering. Over the past 4 years, I've delved deep into the realm of graphics design, honing my skills in creating visually striking designs that resonate with audiences. From branding materials to digital illustrations.

In addition to my design expertise, I've also spent the last 6 months exploring the world of frontend engineering. This journey has allowed me to merge my passion for creativity with a knack for technical problem-solving. As a frontend engineer, I thrive on the challenge of crafting user-friendly interfaces and seamless web experiences.
